Policies

Outside Dessert

We do allow outside desserts to be brought in however there are a couple of policies in place to be aware of. We charge $2.50 per person for outside desserts and an additional $2.50 per person if plating and serving is needed, if you are bringing your own supplies they must be cleaned up by the end of the event or a cleaning fee will be applied. Also to note we cannot allow outside desserts to be held in our cooler and are not responsible for any damage that may occur while on the premises. We reserve the right to refuse to cut outside cakes if we do not feel confident in their integrity and the guests must cut and serve it themselves. Please let us know if you will be bringing in an outside cake when you are confirming your menu so we're able to make proper arrangements. If your cake will be delivered prior to your event start time a representative of the party MUST be present or we will be unable to accept the cake.

Outside Wine

Due to the nature of our liquor license we are unable to allow any outside alcoholic beverages including wine.

Outside Food

We do not permit any outside food to be brought onto the premises with the exception of desserts that have been approved by the event director.
